- Check in will be from 12:00 p.m. CT till 4:00 p.m. CT.
- All teams may be subject to a polygraph. By becoming a member of the 2022 6th Annual WOODSVIKING Outdoors & Outfitters (WOO) Predator Hunt, you agree to take a polygraph and accept the decision.
- All hunting must take place in the state of Tennessee. No exceptions!
- All game laws must be followed in Tennessee. All proper hunting licenses must be purchased.
- Kill block must be used.
- NO splitting up of team members to hunt. Any team member actively hunting MUST be traveling in the same vehicle and remain at least 1,000 yards from other team member actively hunting.
- No pooling of coyotes/fox/bobcat with other teams in the WOO Predator Hunt or other hunters that aren't members of the 7th Annual WOO Predator Hunt.
- NO trapped, snared, caged or roadkill coyote/fox /bobcat will be accepted. Any coyote/fox/bobcat that looks suspicious to WOO Predator event staff will be disqualified.
- Any team found to be breaking game laws or event rules will be automatically disqualified and prizes forfeited. Your team will be banned from future WOO Hunts and it is solely up to staff's discretion.
- NO adding/subtracting weight to coyotes/fox/bobcat. Any team found to be adding/subtracting weight to any coyote/fox/bobcat in an unreasonable manner will be disqualified and banned from future WOO Predator Hunts and it is solely up to staff's discretion.

- All coyotes and/or fox/bobcat must have all parts intact, in a reasonable manner, to be eligible for weighted side bounties. (WOO staff can provide more info on this if there are concerns)
- The WOO official scales will be the final decision on weight.
- If there is a tie in weight or total numbers in any category, the first team to arrive time at check-in will win the tiebreaker.
- You will NOT be allowed to have additional people in your vehicle while you are hunting. If a landowner must unlock a gate or be on premises while you hunt, they must travel in a separate vehicle and not participate or aid you in the hunt in any way. Examples: Driving team vehicle, scanning, retrieving, calling, shooting.
- After ALL hunting has concluded for the weekend, you ARE allowed to have other occupants in your vehicle on the way to check-in.
- Only team members registered for the 2023 7th Annual WOODSVIKING Outdoors & Outfitters Predator Hunt may participate in any hunting during the hours of the hunt!
- All coyotes/fox/bobcat must be covered or out of sight after all hunting is concluded and your team is on the way to check-in. If you use a rack, a tarp or plastic cover will work. If you are using a truck, all coyotes must be below the bed line of the truck and not visible to other motorists (excluding tractor trailers).
- All coyotes must be disposed of in a proper manner by your team. Please don't dump coyotes in an illegal manner if you want this event to continue in the future. We WILL work with game officials if an illegal dumping incident occurs.
- Rules may be amended until 1/21/2022 at 11:59 p.m. CT
